From Your Pastor...

This Sunday, February 6th is the first anniversary of our Re:Creation service. This service has grown and continues to grow. We have seen many new people come to College Park as a result of this new service. There are so many people that make a service like this work including the band, the technology crew, Cecelia's Café crew, and all those who help us with setup and clean-up. This Sunday, we invite you come and be a part of celebrating the first year of ministry through this creative worship experience. If you know someone who may be interested in this style of worship, please extend an invitation to them this week!

We still have available space in the small-group study series entitled "Foundations." It will begin on Wednesday, February 23rd (6:30-7:30 each Wednesday), and this series will be for the first 15 people who register (class size is limited due to the nature of discussion and the availability of books). The series will be a little more in-depth study of some of the foundational issues of the faith, including: The Bible; God; Jesus; The Holy Spirit; Creation; Salvation; Sanctification; Good and Evil; The Afterlife; The Church; and The Second Coming. To read more about the series, you can read the product reviews and testimonies by typing in the Foundations book ISBN number (0310240735) at amazon.com, and then click on the book title or picture. The series will start on February 23rd and continue until we are finished, which could range between 11 and 22 sessions, depending on discussion. Let me know if you have questions or want to sign up.

See You Sunday!

Blessings and Peace,

Ramon

A NOTE FROM MARY

In light of our worship time together Sunday, I thought I would share with you another "cross song" by the group FFH:

How wide is Your love that You would stretch Your arms and go around the world?
And why for me would a Savior's cry be heard?
I don't know why You went where I was meant to go.
I don't know why You love me so.

Those were my nails, that was my crown that pierced Your hands and Your brow.
Those were my thorns, those were my scorns, those were my tears that fell down
And just as You said it would be, you did it all for me.

And after You counted the cost, you took my shame, my blame on my cross.

How deep is Your grace that you could see my need and chose to take my place?
And then for me, these words I'd hear You say:
Father no, Forgive them for they know not what they do
I will go because I love them so.

Those were my nails, that was my crown that pierced Your hands and Your brow.
Those were my thorns, those were my scorns, those were my tears that fell down.
And just as You said it would be, you did it all for me.
And after You counted the cost, you took my shame, my blame on my cross.
