FROM ONE MINISTER TO ANOTHER . . .

We welcome our Mission Team back from Haiti! As I write these words, the team is still experiencing a land that is full of such need and such vast opportunities for Christian witness. Surely, all of us look forward to hearing of their experiences. Our prayers are for their safe and healthy return from Haiti.

Let me remind you that next Wednesday will feature our Quarterly Church Conference. I truly love being a Baptist—one of the reasons being my firm belief in the rightness of a congregational church government. In a Baptist church, every member has an equal voice and important decisions are made by the body as a whole. We have had healthy sessions during the time that I have experienced College Park, and I know that will continue. A healthy congregation makes decisions together and then respects the decisions that are made by the majority. That is a pure democracy—but most importantly, we want our church to be a Theocracy, always seeking together to do the will of God.

Sunday's message is entitled, "The Secret of Contentment." Our text is Philippians 4: 4-13. Who of us does not want to find the true key to the inner peace of true contentment? These are perplexing days and life brings new challenges over and over again. Let's explore together what the scriptures tell us about "The Secret of Contentment." I look forward to seeing you this Sunday, if not before! God bless you!

RAMON'S UPDATES

This year we would like to make our FUN-Raising Auction the kind of event to which you will invite friends and prospects! We will begin serving hamburgers and hotdogs at 5:00pm, and the meal will only cost $2.50...but the desserts will be auctioned! So we need volunteers to make some of those desserts "you are known for" (if not famous for)! We are also in need of promotional items from your place of employment, or any other new item or service that you might get donated for this fun evening! We have already had a weekend to Gatlinburg, TN donated, and are expecting other great "stuff." Our cookout and auction is Saturday, October 26...invite a guest!

Sunday, October 27, is our annual Family Fall Festival in Smith Hall. This year's event will also feature a country store! Children of all ages will enjoy this event that begins at 5:00pm and continues until 7:00pm. This is another wonderful opportunity to invite new families with children to experience all that we have to offer children here at The Park! We have full-color flyers at the Information/Welcome Center for you to distribute to potential guests...help yourself!
