RAMON'S UPDATES

Jeff's Notes

Our Junior Coed basketball team will be playing for the Championship this Saturday, March 8th, 8:30am, at Calvary Baptist. Come support our children as they play hard and show wonderful sportsmanship! Our Youth Girls team will be playing their semi-final tournament game this week, and win or lose they have had a wonderful season also! We will be getting together with all of our players, coaches, parents, and fans on Thursday, March 27th, in Smith Hall from 6-8:00pm to celebrate the wonderful season and to present awards to all of our players—from Primary league all the way up!

This Sunday, March 9th, we will be leaving with a group of college students and adults to go to Charleston to work with Charleston Outreach. This year we will be taking one of the largest groups of students that I can remember ever taking on a college mission trip! Please pray for us as we travel and work together. We will look forward to reporting back to you on a Wednesday night very soon!

What a wonderful concert we shared in this past Sunday evening with Chi Rho and One Accord! These men and women are obviously gifted and faithful. Surely all those who were here would agree that there was something that appealed to everyone, and that those who did not attend surely missed a wonderful experience. We are blessed to be neighbors to Wake Forest University and to have members of the faculty, staff, and student body as part of our church family.

It has been quite an interesting winter. Making plans for our youth choir with the ever-changing school schedule due to bad weather has been challenging. As has become our pattern, we were planning to use the first portion of spring break for a choir/ministry trip to Spartanburg, SC, and then on to Atlanta, GA. After two days of the week were "taken back" to make up snow days, we decided to make the trip only a weekend outing. Now the school system has declared that the Saturday in question is a make-up day as well. So Ainesis and EyeWitness will now take an even more "shortened" trip and do so in two parts. After attending a concert in Gastonia on Friday evening, March 14, the group will return to Winston-Salem for classes on Saturday, March 15. Early that afternoon we will travel on to Spartanburg to share in an evening time of fellowship with the youth of Fernwood Baptist Church. We will stay in homes of the church members there and then lead in their morning worship on Sunday, March 16. Please pray that our group will still have a great trip and will sense the importance of sharing/leading this sister congregation in worship. As part of our Youth Sunday emphasis, the groups will be presenting a full concert here on Sunday, March 30, at 7 p.m. in the Chapel.

Christian love and sympathy are extended to Betsy Thompson in the death of her sister-in-law and to Annette Elkins in the death of her brother-in-law.

CONGRATULATIONS TO CHARLOTTE SWIFT

The Carolina Baptist Association 2002 Annual will be dedicated to Charlotte Swift! She was chosen for this honor because of her many years of service. Charlotte served as a church secretary and educational director, held many associational positions in Training Union, WMU, and at the Sunday School Board. In addition, she served as clerk of the Carolina Baptist Association and was the only staff member from September 1953 until January 1955. She held clinics for WMU and Vacation Bible School leadership, assisted in the organization of WMU's and led five Vacation Bible Schools. Charlotte Swift's life has been devoted to witnessing for Christ.

Thank You

Gracious notes of appreciation have been received and posted on the bulletin board from the family of Carolyn Allen and from Jim, Leigh Ann and Whitney Pernell.
